POLICY STATEMENT

Cheating, academic dishonesty, and plagiarism constitute a violation of the offender's own integrity, as well as the integrity of the entire University; they will not be tolerated. Violators will receive sanctions based on the level of academic misconduct.

DEFINITIONS:

Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- The use of unauthorized books, notes, or other sources in the giving or securing of help in an examination or other course assignments.
- The copying of other students' work or allowing others to copy your work. The submission of work that is not your own or allowing others to submit your work as theirs.
- The submission of the same work for two or more classes without the approval of the instructors involved.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- Sharing academic materials knowing they will be used inappropriately.
- Accessing another person's work without permission.
- Providing false or incomplete information on an academic document.
- Changing student records without approval.
- Obtaining and using texts or other materials intended for instructor use only.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to:

- The presentation of another's published or unpublished work as one's own.
- Taking words or ideas of another and either copying them or paraphrasing them without proper citation of the source.
- Using images, charts, graphs, statistics or tables without proper citation.

Levels of Academic Misconduct and Sanctions

The faculty member teaching the course has the primary responsibility for resolving allegations of academic dishonesty, though egregious violations will be resolved by the School administration, the Academic Misconduct Board, or some combination thereof. The final decision on the level of a violation rests with the Academic Misconduct Board. Options for resolving an alleged case of academic dishonesty range from dismissing the allegation with no negative sanction to being expelled from the university (Table 1). A negative sanction is defined as an action taken by the faculty member that affects the student's grade for the assignment or his or her cumulative grade for the course. Anytime academic misconduct is detected, the procedures outlined in Table 1 should be followed. The incident will be maintained in a searchable database maintained by the Office of Academic Affairs.

Level	Examples (not an exhaustive list)	UIU Action	Student Consequences	Appeals Process
First level violations occur because of inexperience or lack of knowledge of academic integrity. (Usually, there is an absence of dishonesty or intent to deceive.)	Working with another student on a minor exercise or homework assignment when such collaboration is prohibited. Failure to footnote or give citation in a limited section of an assignment. Paraphrasing whose language is too close to the original text.	Instructor informs the student of the violation and the consequences. Instructor has the option to either individually instruct student on academic integrity or recommend student visit the Writing Center for specific instruction. Instructor must submit an Academic Misconduct Report Form to the Department Chair or Program Chair outlining the violation and action taken. This form will then be forwarded to the Dean of the School who will submit this information into the ongoing database, checking for additional violations.	Have student repeat the assignment, or give the student an alternative assignment, after additional instruction is completed, or Give student a “zero” grade, or no credit, for the assignment in question. and Have student complete additional instruction (either with instructor or the Writing Center).	If the student is unhappy with the sanction imposed by the faculty member, he or she may submit a grade appeal in writing to the Dean of School after the session has ended.

Second level violation requires forethought, though the cheating is not extensive but rather moderate in scope. Moderate means that some of the student's work is not his or her own.	Repeat of first level violation. Quoting directly or paraphrasing a moderate amount of material without acknowledging the source. Copying work or facilitating copying on an exam or other classroom assignment. Using prohibited materials during an exam or other classroom assignment. Exchanging information during an exam or other classroom assignment. Submitting the same work, or portions thereof, in order to satisfy requirements of more than one course without permission from the instructors involved. (Self-plagiarism.)	Instructor meets with student. Instructor has the option to either individually instruct student on academic integrity or recommend student visit the Writing Center for specific instruction. Instructor must submit an Academic Misconduct Report Form to the Department Chair or Program Chair outlining the violation and supporting documentation. The Dean of the School will submit this information into the ongoing database, checking for additional violations. If the reported case IS a repeat of a 1st level offense the School Dean, in conjunction with the Department / Program Chair, will determine, based on the number and severity of the violations, whether the student needs to be referred to the Academic Misconduct Board. This decision will be at the discretion of the School. If the reported offense is NOT a repeat of a 1st level offense, the Dean will refer the case to the Academic Misconduct Board, which will hold a hearing. Please note: if a student has had two prior violations of any level, the Dean must refer the	Instructor will record a "zero" grade, or no credit, for the assignment in question and/or Instructor may fail the student in the course. The instructor submits a grade change form leaving the first line of the grade change form blank and placing in the second line an F. Then in the reason area of the form academic misconduct is noted. and The student will receive an official warning with possible sanctions (i.e. suspension) through fair process of the Academic Misconduct Board.	If the student is unhappy with the sanction imposed by the faculty member, he or she may submit a grade appeal in writing to the Dean of the School after the session has ended. If the student is referred to the Academic Misconduct Board, the student may appeal to the Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs for issues relating to University processes.
